An Aries is independent and beyond passionate about the things that matter to them. Their hard-working spirit is a force to be reckoned with, and they have an overall magnetic energy that attracts many to them. They're the type of person to ball out on vacay... bottle service by the beach, anyone?

As an earth sign, it's no surprise that a Taurus is super down-to-earth. They love fiercely and are a ride-or-die type of friend, so much so that they can be a little stubborn. Okay, a lot of stubborn. Like they say, "You mess with the bull, you get the horns!" They're the type of person that views a vacay as a time to chill and relax, so you can probably find a Taurus treating themselves to a facial or massage at the resort's spa.

A Gemini can do it all. They're always curious about those around them, so they tend to be very social and outgoing. But with their curiosity comes a super sensitive side, so they like to decompress and appreciate their alone time. At least one of their twin personalities is usually up for some fun, so they're the type of person to love an all-inclusive resort with plenty of activities to choose from... one for each of their moods!

Gemini

A Cancer is intuitive, and their gut feeling is usually pretty spot on. They're very strong-willed, and extremely loyal to those in their circle, especially their family. They're also rather sensitive and are always trying their best to protect themselves and those around them. They're the type of person who looks forward to hanging out with their family at the beach every year.

Cancer

A Leo exudes confidence and is extremely secure in who they are, no matter how others perceive them. Their larger-than-life personalities may seem like a lot from the outside, but a Leo has an inviting spirit and makes for an amazing, loyal friend. They're the type of person slaying their vacay with some #GOALS beach selfies.

A Virgo is a bit of a perfectionist in all aspects of their life. They're super organized and handle life's challenges with poise and reason, but sometimes they can be a little close-minded when things don't go according to their plan. They're the type of person to plan out every detail of their trip, including a fabulous airport pickup to the resort!

Virgo

A Libra tends to be a social butterfly, and people love having them around because they bring balance and peace to the group. Their extroverted spirit makes them very charming and able to get along with just about anyone, but on the flip side, they hate confrontation and conflict. They're the type of person on vacation who would still manage to make friends with the person who took their lounge chair by the pool.

A Scorpio puts off a tough exterior, making them fiercely independent and a little intense at times. But on the inside, they're a softy. They crave emotional intimacy, passion and loyalty, making them great partners once they let someone in. Once they've finally found "the one," they're the type of person to plan a romantic retreat and an intimate sunset dinner on the beach.

A Sagittarius is highly intelligent and often loved for their incredible sense of humor. They make for great leaders who are willing to take risks in life to be the best version of themselves.

They're always down for a new adventure! A Sagittarius is the type of person who explores their destination's surroundings and comes home with some epic stories, too.

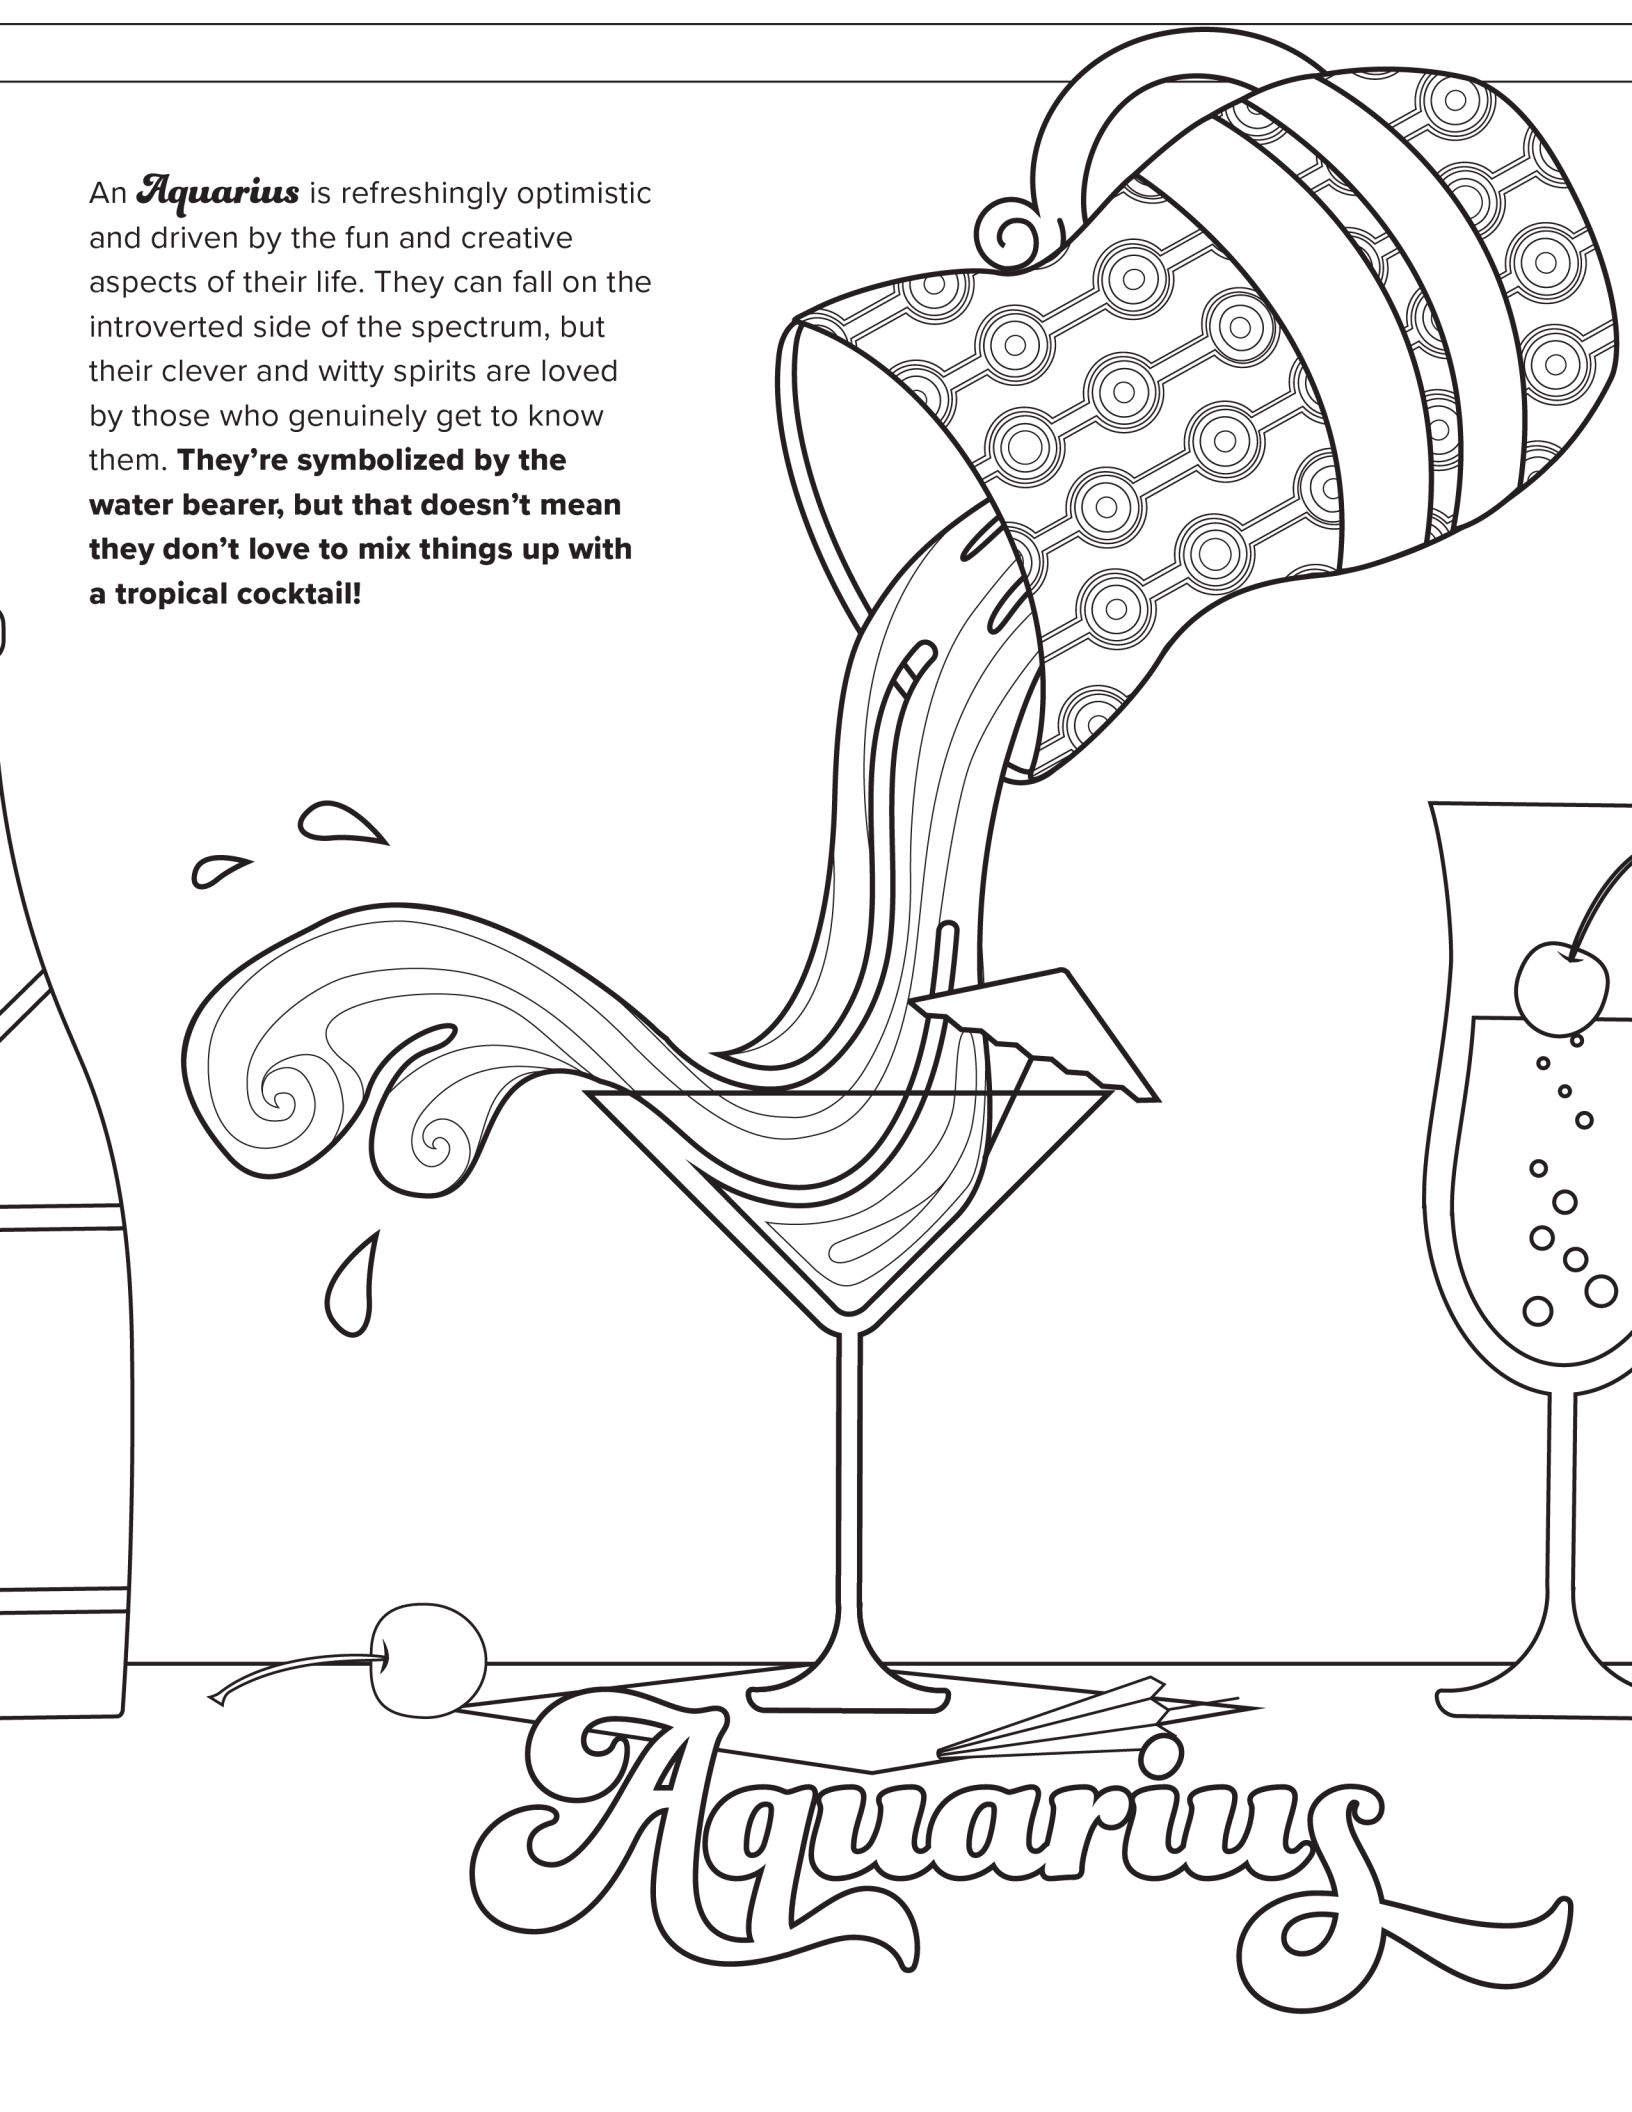

Sagittarius

A Capricorn's strengths are that they are very practical and hardworking. Their high standards for themselves set the tone for their life, both personally and professionally, but they still know how to have fun once they're off the clock. Their overachieving habits make them the type to treat themselves to a day at sea on a luxurious catamaran (open bar included!).

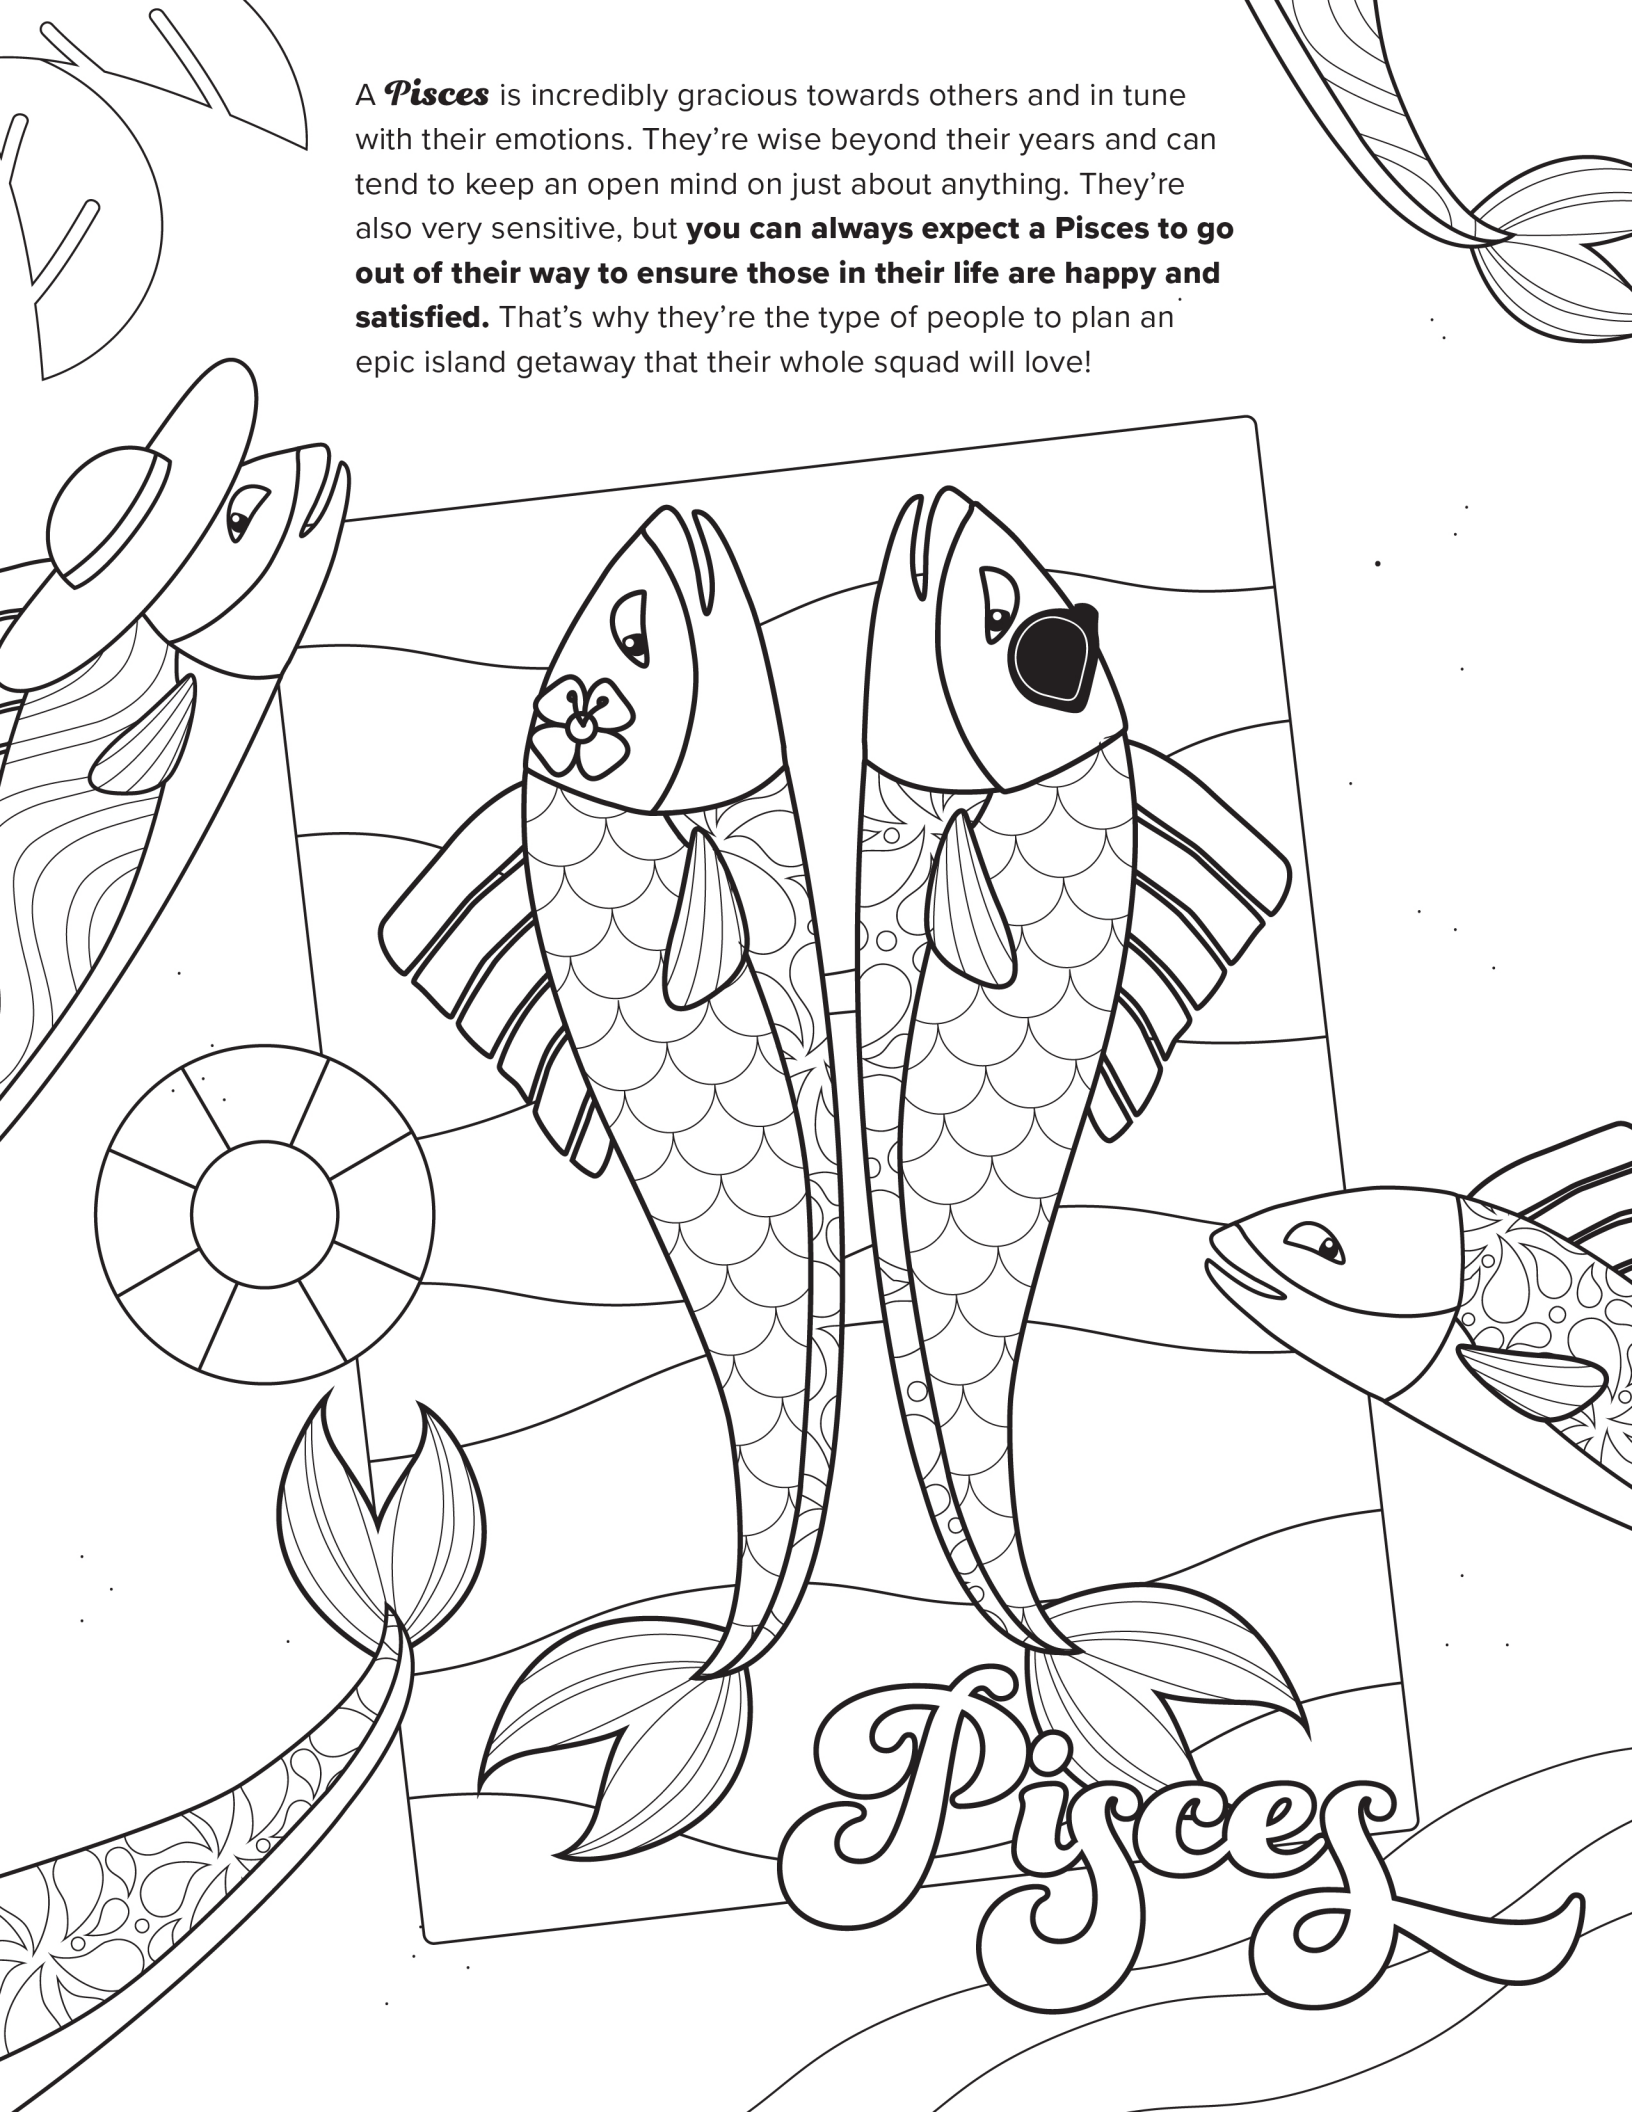

Capricorn

An Aquarius is refreshingly optimistic and driven by the fun and creative aspects of their life. They can fall on the introverted side of the spectrum, but their clever and witty spirits are loved by those who genuinely get to know them. They're symbolized by the water bearer, but that doesn't mean they don't love to mix things up with a tropical cocktail!

Aquarius

A Pisces is incredibly gracious towards others and in tune with their emotions. They're wise beyond their years and can tend to keep an open mind on just about anything. They're also very sensitive, but you can always expect a Pisces to go out of their way to ensure those in their life are happy and satisfied. That's why they're the type of people to plan an epic island getaway that their whole squad will love!
